.45 Colt 1.5 oz. Signature Silver Bullet™

The .45 Long Colt...the iconic sidearm of the Old West. Now you can ricochet back to the American Frontier with our .45 Long Colt Signature Silver Bullets.

1.5 Troy ounce of solid .999-fine silver loads each .45 round - and looks just like the penetrating ammo Wyatt Earp and other denizens of the Wild West carried to trigger peace.

This historical round was first manufactured in 1873 as a black-powder load to ride with horse-mounted troops in the U.S. Army. The .45 Colt picked up its nickname, .45 Long Colt, when the Army needed to differentiate it from the new, slightly shorter .45 Smith & Wesson Schofield cartridges. Today the .45 Colt remains in action as a handgun hunting cartridge and in Cowboy Action Shooting.

Though these Signature Silver Bullets won't stop any modern-day outlaws, they will make a bang with firearms enthusiasts, history buffs, and those wanting to chamber some nostalgia. And you can pepper in some personalization with an engraving. Get a preview of your engraving by clicking the "Engraving" tab.
